Cabo San Lucas Paddle Board & Snorkel Adventure to the Arch

Overview

A stand-up paddle board gives you a front-row view of Land's End, from the granite cliffs above the water to the reef below. Launch straight from the beach (no boats) and paddle the coastline past Neptune's Finger to the famous Arch of Cabo San Lucas, where the Sea of Cortez meets the Pacific.

Watch the sea lion colony from a respectful distance, paddle past Lover's Beach, and finish with guided snorkeling at Pelican Rock, one of the best snorkel spots in the Cabo Marine Protected Area. A certified bilingual guide, all gear, water, snacks and hotel transport are included.

Highlights

• Paddle board to the Arch of Cabo San Lucas

• See the sea lion colony and Neptune's Finger

Itinerary

Cannery Beach (Playa Empacadora): Meet your guide, get a safety briefing and paddle technique tips, and launch from the beach.

Neptune's Finger: Paddle along the granite coastline past this natural rock formation.

The Arch (El Arco): Stop to admire and photograph Cabo's most famous landmark.

Sea lion colony: Watch the resident sea lions from a respectful distance.

Lover's Beach: Paddle alongside the beach and its cliffs (landing is not part of the tour).

Pelican Rock: Guided snorkeling in the marine sanctuary.

Return: A relaxed paddle back to Cannery Beach. If wind or waves prevent access to the Arch, the route stays around Land's End with extra snorkeling time.
